

New York, 25 Jan 2013

February 11, 2013:
Italy Meets United States of America Inaugural Summit.
Italy: Opportunity amid the Eurozone Crisis

AGENDA

Location and timing

Venue: Peterson Hall 50 East 68th Street, New York

Time: 8:00 a.m. - 11:30 a.m.

Moderator: Gideon Rose, Editor in Chief Foreign Affairs Magazine

Format

Panels with Moderator: each session followed by a Q&A

8:00 a.m. Welcome Coffee

First Panel (8:10 a.m.– 10:00 a.m.)

CEOs: Alitalia (A. Ragnetti), ENEL (F. Conti), ENI (P. Scaroni), Intesa (E. Cucchiani), WIND (M. Ibarra)

Topics:

- Leadership and vision in leading each company/ industry
- Industry challenges: banking, credit, energy, oil, transport, telecom, media
- How is CEO/company facing them: outlook and perspectives on Italy/Europe and beyond; 2013 and beyond
- Stock performance and outlook
- Risk of doing business with/from Italy; reality vs. perception; opportunities amid the Eurozone crisis
- Q&A

www.italianbusiness.org

Coffee Break

Second Panel (10:15 a.m.– 11:30 a.m.)

President Giuliano Amato, Two times Italy Prime Minister

Prof. Vittorio Grilli, Minister of Economy and Finance

- Italy two weeks away from the general elections (Feb 24)
- Outlook and possible scenarios
- Reforms: fiscal consolidation and growth
- 2013 still sluggish for Europe
- How much sovereignty is it possible to give up in the short term: United States of Europe
- Germany and austerity: the only recipe
- Q&A

