

Elisabetta Bartoloni

Elisabetta Bartoloni is Partner, Global Financial Services Practice at Heidrick & Struggles in New York. Elisabetta is Americas sector leader of the Investment and Corporate Banking Practice covering portfolio of executive search and advisory work from senior front office to functional roles, including CEO positions, across investment banking, capital markets and asset management clients. She has accrued extensive experience advising bulge bracket as well as boutique and middle market investment banks and other investment management companies. Before joining Heidrick & Struggles she held senior positions in New York at Westwood Partners LLC as Managing Director financial services executive search, JH McCann & CO as Director, Financial Services Executive Search, Korn Ferry International as Senior Associate Senior Associate within the Global Financial Services Practice, Goldman Sachs as Investment Banking Research Analyst, Data Resources Group. She graduated from the University of Florence BA and Master in Economics and Bachelor of Arts, with Honors. She attended New York University Stern and Reading University in England.

Elisabetta Bartoloni

IB&I Board of Advisors,
New York

